General Rules & Information

Contestant must have never been married or pregnant.

Contestants may not re-enter a category which they have previously won.

Each contestant will compete in the appropriate age category in appropriate attire which is outlined above.

Photogenic competition is optional in each category. Dress codes MUST be followed or the contestant will be disqualified.

Once the contestant is dressed and ready, all parents or coaches are to go to the audience. Pageant officials will make sure the girls get to the proper place at the correct time.

No talking will be allowed backstage during the competition. Noise can be heard onstage and in the audience.

The judges will be qualified, and their decisions are final.

There will be a queen, 1st runner up, 2nd runner up, photogenic, & Miss Hospitality in each age group.

There will be an overall Ticket Sales winner.

All winners will be required to represent Idabel Chamber of Commerce in future events as requested.

All winners will also be required to participate in the upcoming Christmas Parade. The winners will provide their own cars and signs (decorations).

If the winner of any category cannot fulfill the responsibility and duties of that category due to family relocation, failure to comply with obligations, marriage or pregnancy, then the first runner up will assume the title and complete the year as the winner.

Pageant Officials or Idabel Chamber of Commerce will not be responsible for injury or lost articles during the pageant or parade.

Entry fees will not be returned if contestant has to drop out.

Idabel Chamber of Commerce has final authority on questions not covered in this general rules and information sheet.
